15th December 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

As Christmas approaches, children have been working hard, not only in our normal key subjects, but also in the arts, crafts and musical elements of school. The festive season is a great opportunity for children to engage in singing, performing and artwork - all elements which research shows improve social happiness and emotional wellbeing.

We hope that you all enjoyed the Christmas Fair yesterday evening. It was lovely to see such a great turn out, with so many families enjoying the stalls, the children's baking, the book fair... and of course the grotto of our special visitor! We would like to thank FOBS for putting such hard work into the fair, as well as all the children and staff who worked hard baking and manning stalls to raise £334.35 at the fair and £300.40 at the book fair. We hope that you had fun!

Today, we have enjoyed another festive event - Christmas Jumper Day - in aid of Save the Children, for which we have raised £66.00

Next week, festive celebrations continue with four very special performances (please see the information below and the attached letter). The children have been excellent at learning their songs and we are sure that you will enjoy these performances and join in with a few carols!

Finally, please note that next Friday (22nd December), school finishes early for the Christmas holidays, at 2:30pm.

Wishing you all a very happy and restful weekend.

Yours sincerely
Susan Gill, Ruth Tromans

Give As You Live Page

We have set up a Give as You Live page under the name of Broomfield School Fund in an attempt to raise a few extra pounds for school funds. If you shop on line at Tesco, Amazon, Next, M&S, Just eat and many more, please log in first to Give as you Live. Then go to your chosen shop and they will make a donation to our school as a charity. Thank you.

Christmas will soon be upon us. Please have a look at the table below, which details our wonderful celebrations (this year, as for school trips, arranged in classes, rather than year groups/key stages due to our split key stage classes).
